

Patricia Rutter Photography

Statement

Pat Rutter specialised in photographing nature and capturing animal portraits. Her studies and activities centre on the flora and the plight of the wild creatures. While her patience and thorough technique allow her to transform untamed situation into mesmerising photographs, her boldness allows her to capture explosive action shots. In search of the ideal photo, Pat has worked in over 40 national and international zoos and wildlife parks. Over the past 10 years has dedicated her life to photography. Her technical and artistic abilities are at the pinnacle of perfection
